Vision:

Leavenworth County sets the standard for humane communities – becoming a place where all animals are treated humanely, and every pet has a loving forever home.

Mission

Leavenworth County Humane Society, Inc. provides the animal welfare focal point for all of Leavenworth County.

- Conducts humane education for schools and community groups.
- Works to improve animal protection laws and their enforcement.
- Cares compassionately for stray, abandoned and relinquished animals (future: in a pro-life, state-of-the-art care center) and licensed foster homes.
- Re-homes adoptable animals with responsible owners and provides adoption follow-up.
- Helps owners retain their pets by providing education and training assistance.
- Partners with cities, the county, other rescues, shelters and animal welfare groups to create a humane county where people and animals want to live.

In the future:

- Assists in emergency planning and action for animals.
- Supports law enforcement with cruelty and neglect investigations.
- Eliminates pet abandonment by providing a humane and legal alternative.

Values

We believe that:

- Animals are capable of pleasure and pain and are worthy of human compassion.
- Humans have a moral responsibility to treat animals humanely.
- People want to provide lifelong appropriate care for their animals.
- Companion animals enhance the quality of human life.
- Violence, cruelty and neglect toward animals are related to violence, cruelty and neglect toward humans.
- Promoting compassion toward animals encourages people to treat each other with respect and kindness.
- Humane communities attract law-abiding responsible citizens that contribute to the overall quality of life for all.
